GATHERING TO WORSHIP – BEGINNING WITH GOD!

Prelude

Welcome

Gathering Hymn: VT #62 God Is Here Among Us

Psalm 25:1-10

Hymn: VT #636 Spirit, Open My Heart

Prayer of Self Reflection:

Here we are God finding ourselves feeling overwhelmed by countless unknowns, including all the "what if" fears in our lives. We forget, your deep unfathomable love is ready to seep deeper into our souls, dissolving all the fears and "what will they think if I" concerns that keep us from living intentionally each day, as though it were our last. May we begin to forgive, let go of, all unresolved past hurts that block the flow of your “life giving” presence to others, and ourselves. We don’t know the future, but we sense your saving presence is moving deeper into our hearts, to cope with whatever comes our way. That makes all the difference. Amen

WHAT IS GOD SAYING TO ME?

ANNOUNCEMENTS

In the mid 2000's, Breslau, Preston and Wanner worked together to sponsor Mamduoh and Suad Saidam and family, refugees from Iraq. They lived in Cambridge then Hamilton, where along with other family they had a restaurant until 2016, when it burned down. They just opened a Middle Easter bakery. We pray God's blessing on this new adventure. (www.znoudal-hamdani.com)
