

PRESTON MENNONITE CHURCH

Our banner, titled "One in the Spirit," illustrates that at Pentecost, the Spirit did not blend or erase ethnic differences to create the church. Rather she made it possible for each to hear the good news in their own language and to "show their own colour" in the new community.

SUPPORT FOR UKRAINIAN REFUGEES

We have become aware of ways to support Ukrainian Refugees as they make their way to Waterloo Region.

1: ITEMS TO DONATE: A list of items currently needed is listed below. Please donate only items on the list. No clothing, winter items or toys right now. Most needed:

- ✓ Flour, salt, pepper, baking supplies, coffee dry beans, rice, juice, drinking boxes
- ✓ New pillows
- ✓ New or nearly new bedding and towels
- ✓ New underwear for men and women and youth bras
- ✓ Sunscreen, hair brushes and combs, shaving gel, shampoo, body wash, teen products, chap stick, hand and body lotion, Q-tips, hair products, hair ties, ladies' razors, deodorant and band aids
- ✓ Running shoes and summer shoes for children
- ✓ Gift cards for grocery stores
- ✓ Crafts and games for kids 10 and up.

Donations may be dropped off at 130 Weber Street W, Unit 101 Kitchener (the old Caya Fabrics building). Enter the driveway to the parking lot off Wellington St past the second house. For donations and to visit the store, go to the walkway on the right side of the building by the sunflowers on the fence and up a few stairs. Open Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays 10-4:30. Closed holidays. Or, call Nancy Kinsie if you have items to donate. To see everything we can help with visit: www.wrgrassrootsresponse.ca

2: STUDENT AT RISK FUND: The appeal from the University of Waterloo is to bring students at risk in Ukraine to continue their studies here. The Student and Risk Fund is intended to cover costs associated with hosting visiting undergraduate and graduate students who will be integrated across UW facilities. Expenses include English as a second language, on campus accommodation, meals and essential travel. Click here to donate.

3: MCC: contributes locally the amount of 10% of every shipment from the warehouse to the Indigenous neighbours and Newcomer programs. (including Ukrainians)
